By students, for students

Hi everyone!

I hope you all had a lovely Easter and didn't eat too much chocolate!

My purse definitely took a bit of a hit this month, not from celebrations but from getting work properly bound before my final deadlines. I thought a full scale riot was going to erupt in the library when everyone found out the prices! Never mind, I am now officially coursework free, forever!

For those of you with deadlines left, keep going. There's only one more month of revision and assignments and then summer can finally begin. Keep persevering and don't get distracted with any last minute nights out!

Thinking of becoming a Sabbatical Officer?

It's coming to the end of the year for current Sabbatical Officers. So we ran a competition asking them what they thought their legacy would be and if they had any advice to pass on to future SABBS. See which University SABBS officer got the most views and won.
